

Dear Parishioners,

A very special thank you to all who helped with our festival! We were blessed with beautiful weather and a good turnout. We still have a few outstanding bills and will provide our final numbers as soon as we have those paid.

Thank you also to all who have contributed to our air-conditioner fund and to the Altar Society for their help in raising those funds. If you have not had a chance to turn in your envelope, please place it in the collection basket.

Please be sure to prayerfully consider your donation to the Archbishop's Annual Appeal this year. You should have received information in the mail this last week regarding the goals of this year's campaign. With everyone's help, we will easily be able to reach our parish goal again this year.

Blessings,
Father John

Question of the Week – Where do you see evil in the world? How do you respond?

Reading 1 Numbers 11:25-29

Reading 2 James 5:1-6

Gospel Mark 9:38-43, 45, 47-48

Reflection: Like Moses before him, Jesus wants God's healing power to be shared by as many as possible. When a disciple complains about a man who is healing in Jesus' name but who is not one of their company, Jesus assures him, "Anyone who is not against us is with us." Doing good is not to be restricted to an exclusive few. Giving good example to the "little ones" or those of simple faith will be rewarded. Anyone who leads them astray deserves punishment.

Since our hands, our feet, and our eyes can lead us into sin, we are to use them in ways that honor God's Kingdom of love, justice, and peace. By doing so, we help to make God's reign visible in our midst.
