

First Friday Exposition and Adoration

First Friday Adoration and Exposition will be this Friday, October 6. If you did not get a chance to sign up and would like to participate, you are welcome to join us and spend time with Jesus, who is truly present in the Blessed Sacrament. The Church will be open for you from 9 a.m. to 9 p.m.

Adoration is essentially an embrace with Jesus in which I say to him: "I am yours, and I ask you, please stay with me always".
~ Pope Benedict XVI

God speaks to us in many ways, including through this Sunday's Scripture readings.

It's not enough to merely say you believe. You must also live your faith.

Reading 1 Ezekiel 18:25-28

Reading 2 Philippians 2:1-11 or 2:1-5

Gospel Matthew 21:28-32

Question of the Week –

Adults: How and when were you like each of the sons in the Gospel?

Children: Today's parable reminds us that it isn't what we say that counts as much as what we do. How would someone know you are a Christian through your actions?

UPCOMING EVENTS AT ST. BENEDICT CENTER, SCHUYLER, NE, OCTOBER 2017

From Here to Hope: Our Mission of Mercy, Oct. 14, one-day retreat with Fr. Joseph Nassal, a Missionary of the Precious Blood from Liberty, MO. During the Holy Year of Mercy, Pope Francis encouraged faith communities to open their doors so that all pilgrims might find welcome & experience God's mercy & compassion. But it is also necessary for people of faith to be ministers of mercy in the world—to go out into the streets to share the mercy of God with those on the margins of life. Today we will explore in both practical & prophetic ways how to live God's tender mercy in our everyday lives. Program fee: $30. Lunch is available at the Center for $10.50 (includes tax).

One-person Theater: Far as the Eye Can See, Oct. 15, performance celebrating Nebraska's 150th birthday by actor Pippa White. This show tells true stories of the prairie & its people: the early pioneers who crossed it, the later pioneers who settled it, the brave people of the Dust Bowl, & the Native American people who struggled to keep the prairie that once belonged only to them. Pippa White calls her unique, captivating, & touching productions "part theater, part storytelling, part history." She has extensive background in theater & television, including five years as a hostess on daily morning television at ABC in San Francisco, CA. Advance & Senior/Student Tickets $7, Tickets (Door) $9

You are Enough! A Retreat for Women, Oct. 21 - 22, with Mary Guynan, Tonya LeGrande & Vicki Pribil. As women, we try to be it all, do it all, & make it all work for everyone in our lives. We tend to hold ourselves to impossible standards & judge ourselves based on all we are not, yet think we should be. Let God breathe new life into you & know that you are enough. This retreat is for women of all ages. The weekend will include presentations, prayer, guided meditation, shared reflection, and opportunity for the Sacrament of Reconciliation, Adoration & Mass. Saturday, 9:30 a.m., to Sunday, after lunch.

Personality and Prayer, October 28 – 29, with Benedictine Oblate Jodi Blazek Gehr. Through prayer, we grow in our relationship with God. As our personality profiles differ, so do the kinds of prayer that we feel drawn to naturally. There is not only one right way to pray. We can pray using Holy Scripture, the Psalms, our own words, images, stories, silence, nature, body postures, music ... During this retreat, allow yourself to see with new eyes the best ways for you to connect to God through prayer. Saturday, 9:30 a.m., to Sunday, after lunch.
