God speaks to us in many ways, including through this Sunday's Scripture readings.

Jesus' miracles are a sign that the power of Satan is broken and the kingdom of God has arrived.

Because of sin, sickness and death have entered the world, but are overcome through the Resurrection of Jesus.

He hears the cry of those in need, healing the sick and raising the dead to life.

He made himself poor that we might become rich.

Reading 1 Wisdom 1: 13-15, 2:23-24 Psalm 30: 2, 4-6, 11-13 Reading 2 2 Corinthians 8: 7, 9, 13-15
Gospel Mark 5: 21-43

Questions of the Week -

Adults: What are some of the miraculous moments in your own life? Do you ever pray for miracles?

Children: Does sharing with others bring happiness to you?

The Pope's worldwide prayer intention for the month of July is for the pastoral care of the sick. We pray that the Sacrament of the Anointing of the Sick confer to those who receive it and their loved ones the power of the Lord and become ever more a visible sign of compassion and hope for all.

From the Pastor

Journey of Faith Anniversary

Tomorrow, July 1st, marks the first anniversary of the partnership between Holy Name and St. Philip Neri-Blessed Sacrament parishes. I know the Archdiocesan pastoral plan brought many changes, but you all maintained patience and generously accepted them. The joint Pastoral Council was formed and will now meet monthly, starting in August. We had growing pains but successfully united our Religious Education programs into one entity while working with both schools. Youth from both parishes will be traveling together for the first time to the Steubenville Conference next weekend, and I see parishioners from both parishes attending Masses and services at the opposite location.

With all the adjustments this year, I apologize that we have not had more occasions for people of both parishes to meet and get to know each other. I aim to do a better job at that next academic year, July 1st-June 30th, and encourage all of you to do the same. Both parishes have fantastic histories and friendly people. As pastor and spiritual shepherd to both parishes, there is no greater cause of joy than to see the flocks intermingle, unite, and look out for each other. There is no greater pleasure than seeing new friendships emerge, with Jesus and with each other.

Independence Day Closures & Special Mass

In celebration of the United States of America and her founding, the offices of both Holy Name and St. Philip Neri-Blessed Sacrament parishes will be closed on both this Thursday and Friday, July 4th and 5th, respectively. We regret any inconvenience. There will be a Mass in English in Holy Name Church on the 4th of July at the special time of 9 a.m. in English. All are invited to attend and pray for our country. There are NO other Masses or services in HN or SPN churches on July 4th. The Friday morning Mass in SPN Church will be offered this Friday, July 5th, at 8:15 a.m. as usual.

SPN-BS Exposition Canceled July 4th & 5th

Because of the holiday weekend, there is NO Eucharistic Exposition in SPN Church this Thursday evening or on First Friday, July 5th.

The Altar Rail: How the Communion Rail Fosters Contemplation and Meditation

This is another article in a series of articles preparing us in Holy Name and St. Philip Neri churches to receive Holy Communion at the Altar Rail, beginning July 20/21, the weekend of the National Eucharistic Congress.

Previously we have seen how the altar rail reflects the mysteries of God. It simultaneously represents the necessary distance we have from our Creator and draws us intimately to the table of that same Lord. One of the other benefits of receiving Communion at the balustrade or altar rail is the time it affords us to prepare for Communion.

Modern Communion lines are efficient, but they may also feel a bit impersonal. The communicant is preoccupied with the line itself. He must attentively walk in stride, carefully inching forward as the line does. All he can see is the back of the head of the person in front of him, and then suddenly he is before the priest or minister. He quickly receives Communion, moves out of the way, and shuffles back to the pew. Our minds are concentrating on so many banal things that we can lose sight of the exquisite reception of Jesus himself.

The altar rail, on the other hand, allows the communicant more time to meditate upon the mystery of the Eucharist. Whether standing or kneeling at the rail, the communicant is stationary. He need not worry about others behind him or in front of him, about bumping into someone or moving too slowly. He simply waits for the priest or minister to bring him Communion or to bestow upon him a prayer of welcome. In that time of calm expectation, the communicant can prepare himself mentally and spiritually for this great gift. After he has received Communion, he might also wait a moment at the rail in thanksgiving and then return to his pew to continue his gratitude to God. There is no rush.

Of course, during the adjustment period, I have no doubt that remembering the new aspects associated with receiving at the rail while be distracting. I assure you, though, that those initial preoccupations will dissolve with time. It will become a steady habit, a habit that will be less distracting and more meditative than receiving Communion on the fly. The individual freedom allowed by reception at the rail will also allow for more deliberate, conscientious, and engaged piety and decisions.

Resetting Parish Sick Lists

In our respective parish bulletins, we sometimes ask for prayers for people seeking our intercession. The lists can build up over time and we do not always know if such prayers are still needed for the ailing individuals. So, we are resetting our lists within our bulletins, petitions, and websites. If you would like to be included in such prayerful intercession, please contact the respective parish office at your earliest convenience. We are honored and humbled to love and pray for our fellow parishioners and suffering neighbors.

Rev. Mr.
Brian Hula

Kenrick-Glennon Seminary
St. Peter Church, Omaha, NE

As a Parish and as a School, we are praying for the Seminarians of the Archdiocese of Omaha. Every two weeks we will feature a young man who is discerning a vocation to the priesthood.

Please join us in praying:

A Prayer for Vocations through the intercession of Saint John Vianney

O God our Father, You promised "I will appoint shepherds for My sheep who will shepherd them so that they need no longer fear and tremble: and none shall be missing." (Jer. 23:4-5). Hear the prayers of Your flock. Through the intercession of Your beloved priest, Saint John Vianney, we beg You to call to the sacramental priesthood generous men who will desire nothing more than to serve You in imitation of Your Son, Our Lord Jesus Christ, our High Priest.

And after You call them, we pray that You sustain the doubtful, console the discouraged, and strengthen the weak as they start the long and demanding preparation for the priesthood.

Mary, Mother of priests, and example of faithful, humble, and joyful acceptance of God's will, help all those who are called to the priesthood to open their ears and hearts to the gentle call of the Holy Spirit. Amen.
