God speaks to us in many ways, including through this Sunday's Scripture readings.

The prophet hears what God proclaims and is called to speak in God's name. "Amos answered Amaziah, 'I was no prophet, nor have I belonged to a company of prophets; I was a shepherd and a dresser of sycamores. The Lord took me from following the flock, and said to me, Go, prophesy to my people Israel.'" (Amos 7:14-15). "Blessed be the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, who has blessed us in Christ with every spiritual blessing in the heavens, as he chose us in him, before the foundation of the world, to be holy and without blemish before him." (Ephesians 1:3-4). The Twelve hear the message of Jesus and are sent forth to preach the Good News.

Reading 1: Amos 7:12-15    Psalm 85:9-14    Reading 2: Ephesians 1:3-14    Gospel Mark 6:7-13

Questions of the Week

Adults: Why did Jesus send them out two by two, rather than alone?

Youth: When Jesus sent the disciples out, he was preparing them for the future when he would ascend into heaven. How are you growing in your own faith and preparing for life as a Christian disciple?

Children: Who do you think most needs to hear the Good News about Jesus?

The Pope's worldwide prayer intention for the month of July is for the pastoral care of the sick. We pray that the Sacrament of the Anointing of the Sick confer to those who receive it and their loved ones the power of the Lord and become ever more a visible sign of compassion and hope for all.

From the Pastor*The Altar Rail: How the Communion Rail is Inclusive

This is another article in a series of articles preparing us in Holy Name and St. Philip Neri churches to receive Holy Communion at the Altar Rail, beginning July 20/21, the weekend of the National Eucharistic Congress.

We have seen over the bulletin articles published in recent weeks how the use of the altar rail beautifully balances and respects both the transcendent element of our relationship with the Lord (June 16th) and His radical desire for intimacy with us (June 23rd), as well as how it may provide a more contemplative mode of receiving Christ in the Eucharist (June 30th). Today I want to share some of the greater elements of inclusivity that the altar rail offers.

Firstly, among our congregation there are diverse experiences of receiving Holy Communion. Older parishioners may fondly remember receiving the Eucharist at the altar rail, whereas this may be a foreign custom to middle-aged and younger people. Parishioners from Mexico or Latin America have a fondness for receiving Holy Communion upon the tongue and while kneeling, while many raised in the United States are accustomed to receiving the Body and Blood of Christ while standing and upon the hand. Interestingly, many young people today did not grow up with the tradition of kneeling at an altar rail, but they are asking for this practice in their own quest to find stability and tradition in an ever-changing culture. The ministers at our own JPPII Newman Center use the altar rail to distribute Communion to their college-age congregation, a group that fills their oratory for Masses on Sundays.

My point is, there is a lot of diversity of culture, devotion, experience, age, and physical mobility among our congregations. The altar rail beautifully accommodates the needs of every person while unifying us at the rail. Don't want to or are unable to kneel? No problem, feel free to stand at the rail, but know that using the altar rail allows your brother and sister parishioners who want to kneel to do so easily or at all. Love the idea of kneeling at the altar rail, that's great, but no one is required to do so. It is perfectly fine if others stand. Appreciate the diversity of circumstances and devotionality within our two parishes rather than envy or judge others for receiving in a way differently than you.

All that the Church asks us to do is to receive the Eucharist worthily, with faith and without unconfessed mortal sins on our heart, to at least bow our heads before receiving, and to respond loudly, "Amen." Even those who may not be able to or choose not to receive Holy Communion momentarily are always welcome and invited to come forward, too, and to cross their arms over their chest, and receive a prayer of spiritual Communion from the minister. God understands our varied circumstances, backgrounds, and even physical limitations. When receiving Jesus in the Host, our minds should be caught up with receiving Him, not comparing ourselves with others.

Whether standing or kneeling, receiving on the tongue or upon the hands, the choice is yours! In fact, individuals with mobility issues may find additional stability leaning upon or bracing themselves upon it when receiving Communion – please, if it is too difficult to leave your pew and come forward to receive the Eucharist, whether in Holy Name Church or St. Philip Neri Church, we ministers are glad to bring it to you at the end of Communion time. Simply send someone near you before Mass to alert us, send a messenger on your behalf who is coming up for Communion, or simply flag us down towards the end of the distribution of Holy Communion. We are happy to come to you and to spiritually unite you to the altar rail that, in turn, unites us to the main altar in the sanctuary!

Next weekend, while the National Eucharistic Congress is convening in Indianapolis, we will begin distributing Communion at the altar rail in both of our churches. We will have helpful diagrams printed in the bulletin, as well as oral explanations from the pulpit, that will explain the new traffic patterns. It may be a little clumsy at first but give it a try! We will evaluate things after a few months, but, until then, generously participate in this new manner of receiving Holy Communion.

Mr. Andrew Nigro

St. Paul Seminary
St. Gerald Parish,
Ralston, NE

As a Parish and as a School, we are praying for the Seminarians of the Archdiocese of Omaha. Every two weeks we feature a young man discerning a vocation to the priesthood. Please join us in praying:

A Prayer for Vocations

through the intercession of Saint John Vianney

O God our Father, You promised "I will appoint shepherds for My sheep who will shepherd them so that they need no longer fear and tremble: and none shall be missing." (Jer. 23:4-5). Hear the prayers of Your flock. Through the intercession of Your beloved priest, Saint John Vianney, we beg You to call to the sacramental priesthood generous men who will desire nothing more than to serve You in imitation of Your Son, Our Lord Jesus Christ, our High Priest.

And after You call them, we pray that You sustain the doubtful, console the discouraged, and strengthen the weak as they start the long and demanding preparation for the priesthood.

Mary, Mother of priests, and example of faithful, humble, and joyful acceptance of God's will, help all those who are called to the priesthood to open their ears and hearts to the gentle call of the Holy Spirit. Amen.

- If things get better with age, then I must be getting close to being magnificent.
- I told my husband that he never took me anywhere expensive, so he drove me to the grocery store.
