God speaks to us in many ways, including through this Sunday's Scripture readings.

In the first reading, Ezekiel is sent to bring God's message to hard hearted and obstinate people. Prophets are called by God to proclaim the message of salvation. Suffering and rejection are bound to come with the call.

In the second reading, the Corinthians request evidence of Paul's authority. Evidently, Paul is kept humble by some sort of affliction. Paul recognizes that the power of God is made known in his weakness.

The Gospel of Mark was written for early Christians experiencing persecution for their faith. The rejection Jesus experienced in Nazareth hindered his power because of the people's lack of faith. In today's Gospel passage, Mark presents a foreshadowing of the final rejection Jesus will experience at the Crucifixion.

Reading 1: Ezekiel 2:2-5 Psalm 123 Reading 2: 2 Corinthians 12:7-10 Gospel: Mark 6:1-6

Questions of the Week

Adults: When have you placed your trust in God even though those around you did not believe?

Youth: When have you struggled to speak the truth among your friends? What makes this difficult?

Children: What helps you have deeper faith in Jesus?

The Pope's worldwide prayer intention for the month of July is for the pastoral care of the sick. We pray that the Sacrament of the Anointing of the Sick confer to those who receive it and their loved ones the power of the Lord and become ever more a visible sign of compassion and hope for all.

CHRISTIAN HUMOR:

- They say the more colorful your diet, the healthier you'll be. I eat M & M's; I'm gonna live forever.
- I still have an hourglass figure, it just contains more sand.
- I don't know if I need a hug, a long nap, or an entire pound of chocolate.
- They say every piece of chocolate you eat shortens your life by two minutes. I've done the math. Apparently, I died in 1587.
- Walmart will be closed on Thanksgiving Day so that the self-checkers can be with their families.

Kenrick-Glennon Seminary
St. Peter Church, Omaha, NE

As a Parish and as a School, we are praying for the Seminarians of the Archdiocese of Omaha. Every two weeks we will feature a young man who is discerning a vocation to the priesthood.

Please join us in praying:

A Prayer for Vocations through the intercession of Saint John Vianney

O God our Father, You promised "I will appoint shepherds for My sheep who will shepherd them so that they need no longer fear and tremble: and none shall be missing." (Jer. 23:4-5). Hear the prayers of Your flock. Through the intercession of Your beloved priest, Saint John Vianney, we beg You to call to the sacramental priesthood generous men who will desire nothing more than to serve You in imitation of Your Son, Our Lord Jesus Christ, our High Priest.

And after You call them, we pray that You sustain the doubtful, console the discouraged, and strengthen the weak as they start the long and demanding preparation for the priesthood.

Mary, Mother of priests, and example of faithful, humble, and joyful acceptance of God's will, help all those who are called to the priesthood to open their ears and hearts to the gentle call of the Holy Spirit. Amen.
