September 27, Twenty-sixth Sunday in Ordinary Time ~ St. Matthew 21:28-32

Pray the Collect from today's Mass or a prayer to the Holy Spirit. Read the Holy Gospel two or three times. Reflect in silence. What words in the Gospel caught my attention, comforted me, or challenged me? Prayer: Read the Gospel again. Bring to the Lord the praise, petition, or thanksgiving the Word inspires in you.

Contemplation: Read the Holy Gospel again, followed by this reflection:

What conversion of mind, heart, and life is the Lord asking of me?

- "Son, go out and work in the vineyard today." Where is God calling me to work? How can my work help to build the kingdom of the Lord?
- "John came to you in the way of righteousness." How can I discern the way of righteousness? What graces do I need from God to follow that way?
- "Yet even when you saw that, you did not later change your minds and believe him." What in my life needs to change? Who or what helps me to realize the need for such changes?

Closing Prayer: After silent reflection, pray the Our Father and Psalm 35.

Living the Word: How can I make my life a gift for others in charity? Reflect on how you live your vocation as a missionary disciple and journal about ways you can live your vocation more fully. (<https://catholic.bible/lectio-divina-in-english>)

Safe Environment Certification

With our parish festivals on the horizon and our schools and other activities beginning, all adults who will have any contact with children or vulnerable adults, i.e., adult volunteers for festivals, catechesis, coaches, chaperones, liturgical ministers, ushers, funeral luncheons, etc., must be Safe Environment certified through our archdiocesan process. If you have not attended Safe Environment training in the past, the first step is to create a new account. Read and acknowledge the Archdiocesan Code of Conduct, sign up for a training session, and submit a background check. There are many training dates and locations.

Please pre-register at one of the links below or contact the parish office:

Fr. Damien Cook

St. Philip Neri-Blessed Sacrament Fall Festival is TODAY!

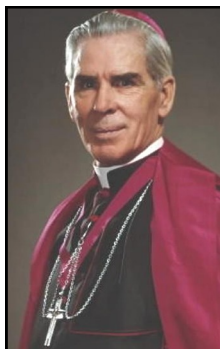

The day has finally arrived, and we pray it is a beautiful one! Please come one and all to the Fall Festival from 11 a.m.-4 p.m. today, Sunday, September 27th. It's up the hill, both inside and outside of St. Philip Neri Catholic School. Buy commemorative t-shirts, enjoy great foods from SPN-BS and HN parishioners, enjoy the games, the Country Store, and rides! Come for each other! And don't forget to buy some more lottery tickets to win big. There's still time to make a donation by using the QR code. Again, this is our primary parish fundraiser, and we hope to raise $300,000. At the time of writing this, 77 underwriters have donated an amazing total of $263,715.00. Will you help us reach our final goal? We're almost there! See you there!

Fr. Fulton Sheen Beatification

Last week, the great American evangelist and savvy communicator, Bishop Fulton Sheen, was beatified. Another proven miracle is required for his canonization, but the miracle that supported his beatification involved a newborn baby in 2010. James Fulton Engstrom was born without a heartbeat or pulse. For 61 minutes, the medical team tried to revive him. The family, who had devotion to Sheen, prayed through his intercession during that unnerving hour. Shortly after the medical team ceased their measures and gave up, the child miraculously began breathing again and, to this day, has no physical or mental side effects from the entire hour without oxygen. Praise the Lord!

Bl. Fulton Sheen was on national television. His show, "Life is Worth Living", was hugely popular at the time, and his various books are essential reading for Catholics. "Three to Get Married", "The Priest is Not His Own," and "Life of Christ" are a few of my favorites. More than his intellect, humor, practicality, and wisdom, Sheen suffered much in his life and practiced the Faith he preached. Bl. Fulton Sheen, pray for us!

Relics

The first class relics of Ss. Cosmas & Damian are available for veneration in HN Church after the 5 p.m. Mass today, September 26th, their feast day. Ss. Cosmas & Damian were early Christian martyrs who were not only physicians but miraculous healers. Consider asking their heavenly intercession for all types of healing, for yourselves and/or for loved ones. You may touch the relic or simply say a prayer before them. In courtesy to others, please use the cloth provided to clean any point of physical contact.

Career and Technical Education

On Friday, September 25, Archbishop McGovern announced a new Career and Technical Education initiative for Archdiocese of Omaha Catholic Schools - a multi-year effort to expand hands-on, career-connected learning for students across Northeast Nebraska. The initiative begins with a pilot at several schools, with plans to expand to more Catholic schools, including ours, in the years after the pilot program has been evaluated. We'll share more as those details take shape, but I am thrilled by this new effort! Throughout my priesthood, I have seen our city's schools and communities, even our Catholic Schools, gradually neglect formation and appreciation for work in the much-needed trades. God uses all our talents to build up a civilization of love and life. I am most grateful to our Archbishop for beginning this amazing opportunity for so many of our young people. Watch the full announcement and learn more at www.schools.archomaha.org.

Priesthood Sunday

What is this "Priesthood Sunday" that we celebrate today, September 27th? Priesthood Sunday (which is always held on the last Sunday of September and is sponsored by the USA Council of Serra International and the Serra International Foundation) is a special day set aside to honor priesthood in the United States. It is a day to reflect upon and affirm the role of priesthood in the life of the Church as a central one.

Please beseech the Lord for more vocations to the priesthood! Currently we have 100 active parish priests in the Archdiocese of Omaha. In 10 years, assuming we have at least 2 ordinations each year during that period, we will have only 71 active priests. The harvest is full, but the laborers are few. I love being a priest! There are challenges and sacrifices, for sure, but what vocation and mission doesn't? For me, I cannot imagine greater fulfillment than to be in the company of Christ and love His people.

There are so many wonderful young men in our parishes and Archdiocese. Please encourage them to consider God's call, even when they are young, especially when they are in 5th and 6th grades. Studies show that these are the ages many children start mapping out their future. Pray for all our seminarians, especially Max Brown, who is a member of SPN-BS Parish and who is currently discerning at St. Gregory the Great Seminary in Seward, NE. Please also pray for seminarian Thomas Matya, who is studying in Rome, and will be ordained a Transitional Deacon on October 1st.

Life Chain Next Sunday

The annual Life Chain will be held next Sunday, October 4th, from 2-3 p.m. Please join Fr. Cook and fellow parishioners, along with hundreds of people throughout the metro, to pray for and witness to the sacredness of human life. Please remember that abortion is still legal in NE and, sadly, many are turning to pharmaceutical abortions. We cannot rest or retreat from this life and death issue.

Please meet along the sidewalk in front of St. Margaret Mary Church (62nd Street east to the bridge, both north and south of

Dodge Street). Please spread out for greatest impact. Signs in English and in Spanish will be available near our location – just look for fellow HN and SPN-BS parishioners. Afterwards, all participants are invited to the St. Margaret Mary parking lot for a complimentary cookout hosted by the Knights of Columbus of St. Margaret Mary and Our Lady of Lourdes.

Farewell to Deacon Butterfield

In September of 2023, Deacon George Butterfield joined SPN-BS Parish and, with the Journey of Faith, later began helping in both of our Family of Parishes. Last November, Deacon already had to limit his participation and duties at our parishes, but now he can no longer help at all. I will miss his stirring homilies, sense of humor, love of the Word and the Church, singing voice, wisdom, and witness to the power of conversion. Please pray for him and his wife, Deb, and please read his letter to you below. I encourage you to consider sending him a note of gratitude. Please send them in care of

Deacon George Butterfield, Pastoral Care Director
c/o New Cassel Retirement Center
900 N. 90th St., Omaha, NE 68114

Letter from Deacon George Butterfield

Dear brothers and sisters, it has been a real privilege to serve with you over the past several years. Deb and I have been blessed. All of you have been very welcoming and gracious, especially Father Cook and my brother deacons.

In this past year it became critical for us to attend Mass closer to home. Health issues made it impossible to attend either of the Sunday Masses at St. Philip Neri. We have been attending a parish near our house that has a later morning Mass. Father Cook gave me opportunities to do baptisms, conduct wakes, and serve at the Easter Vigil but it hasn't seemed right for us, not being able to attend Mass.

Thus, Deb and I have finally decided that we need to register in the parish that we are attending. I will miss Saint Philip Neri and Holy Name, for you gave me an opportunity to serve at a time in my life when I really needed a warm, wonderful, Gospel-oriented place.

Again, I cannot say enough good things about Father Cook. I have had a few pastors in my short Catholic life but none better than Father. Know that you are blessed to have him.

May the Lord richly bless each of you. May he grant you his peace. Let us continue to proclaim the Good News through the lives we live. All glory and honor be to the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit, now and forever. Amen.

- Deacon George and Deb Butterfield

A Prayer for Priests by St. John Vianney

O God, please give your Church today many more priests after your own heart. May they be worthy representatives of Christ the Good Shepherd. May they wholeheartedly devote themselves to prayer and penance, being examples of humility and poverty, shining models of holiness, tireless and powerful preachers of the Word of God, and zealous dispensers of your grace in the Sacraments. May their loving devotion to your Son Jesus in the Most Holy Eucharist and to Mary his Mother be the twin fountains of fruitfulness for their ministry. Amen.

Religious Education Classes for children are on Wednesday, 6:15 pm-7:45 pm in the St. Philip Neri Activity Center (gym). Please arrive a few minutes early to help us begin on time. Please enter through the Activity Center (Gym) entrance. Dear St. Philip Neri-Blessed Sacrament Adorers, The Prayer Room now has its own copy of the National Catholic Register, courtesy of a thoughtful parishioner. Now you can choose your own article(s) to read. Note that the binder of old articles will be on the shelf for a while.

Thanks for all you do. Joann Feller, Coordinator
