October 18, 2026 ~ The 29th Sunday in Ordinary Time ~ Matthew 22:15-21

Pray the Collect from today's Mass or a prayer to the Holy Spirit. Read the Holy Gospel two or three times. Reflect in silence. What words in the Gospel caught my attention, comforted me, or challenged me? Prayer: Read the Gospel again. Bring to the Lord the praise, petition, or thanksgiving the Word inspires in you.

Contemplation: Read the Holy Gospel again, followed by this reflection: What conversion of mind, heart, and life is the Lord asking of me?

- "You are not concerned with anyone's opinion." Whose opinions matter to me? When have I let the opinions of others prevent me from doing what is right?
- "You do not regard a person's status." When have I excluded or looked down on someone because of status (e.g., income, race, country of origin)? What steps can I take to combat prejudice and discrimination?
- "Why are you testing me?" When have I tried to test God? When has my faith been tested?

Closing Prayer: After silent reflection, pray the Our Father and Psalm 96.

Living the Word: How can I make my life a gift for others in charity?

How is God calling me to surrender my life to Him? Discern how you might participate in diocesan efforts to lift up those on the peripheries. Pray for our government leaders. <https://catholic.bible/lectio-divina-in-english>

A Prayer for Priests by St. John Vianney

O God, please give your Church today many more priests after your own heart. May they be worthy representatives of Christ the Good Shepherd. May they wholeheartedly devote themselves to prayer and penance, being examples of humility and poverty, shining models of holiness, tireless and powerful preachers of the Word of God, and zealous dispensers of your grace in the Sacraments. May their loving devotion to your Son Jesus in the Most Holy Eucharist and to Mary his Mother be the twin fountains of fruitfulness for their ministry. Amen.
